'Every child has the right to an education which develops their ability, personality and talents to the full. It should encourage children to respect human rights and their own and other cultures. It should also help them to learn to live peacefully, protect the environment and respect other people.'

Headteacher's Update

It was great to see so many of you attend parents evening. We hope that you find this an invaluable way to learn about your child's progress and ask any questions you may have. Please do ask to see your child's books and discuss progress at any point of the year if you have any concerns or simply would like to learn more about your child's progress.

Reading records

What a delight to see so many children reading and being marked off in their reading records. We have reading monitors who mark off whether children read and the teaching assistants have the overview. On occasions, parents write messages about lost PE kit and other quick communications. Can I please remind you that any communications which you do not wish to share with others or is of a sensitive nature that it is emailed into the office email address school@bearwood.poole.sch.uk for the attention of the class teacher.

Charities

There are so many worthwhile causes for us all to support but unfortunately we cannot support them all as much as we would love. We therefore think very carefully about which charities we choose to fundraise for and the type of fundraising that we can do. Sometimes, the charity chosen may not be one that you are familiar with but it will be one that is close to the hearts of our school community.

As you are aware we do not directly raise money for Children in Need and Red Nose Day, however, we are happy for children to participate by wearing red noses, hair bands etc in recognition of the event.

Reading Week

We have had a fantastic reading week full of activities to get the children excited about reading. One of the favourites has been 'drop and read' where the children have been reading every time the bell goes (and groaning every time they are asked to stop!) Reading breakfast on Tuesday was very successful and it was lovely to see families sharing books together. Thank you to all who came. We saw some amazing book character costumes yesterday and the children really enjoyed taking to the catwalk to show them off. Many children have also completed the reading stars challenge board and some have brought in photographs of themselves completing one of the challenges. Please make sure any last entries are handed in by Monday 11th March.

Amazing Work Year 1

In year 1 we have been learning to write instructions. As a class we discussed what makes a good set of instructions. We then made our own sandwiches, which we enjoyed eating very much. We then wrote our own set of instructions about how to make a sandwich.

Easter is fast approaching and the PFA will be hosting a 'Bunny Bingo' evening on:

Friday 29th March—6pm to 7:30 pm.

In preparation for the bingo evening there will be a non-uniform day on FRIDAY 29TH MARCH. In return for wearing their own clothes, we request that each child brings to school; Easter eggs, mini eggs, cream eggs, foil wrapped chicks/bunnies etc, which will be used at the bingo evening.
