Ukrainian Appeal

Dear Parents/Carers,

The invasion of Ukraine is a deeply disturbing international development. I wanted to signpost you to information that may be useful when responding to your child's natural curiosity and potential growing anxiety around this topic. The Anna Freud Foundation in collaboration with BBC Bitesize have generated some useful material on the conflict. BBC Bitesize I hope you find it informative.

Please do be extra vigilant when monitoring pupil online activity. Children need to ensure they are using reliable sources when seeking information about the conflict. Young people are at risk of being exposed to extreme images linked to the war and inaccurate information. There has been a dramatic rise in potentially harmful and upsetting material trending via social media platforms.

In order to respond to the humanitarian crisis we launched the Bearwood Ukrainian Appeal. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts to all those who brought in donations.

Please do contact your child's teacher should you have any questions or would like any further information.

Yours sincerely,

Laura Bennett
Head Teacher
