NSPCC – Kindness Challenge Week: 2nd – 6th October

Next week in school we are going to have a focus on 'KINDNESS' and will be taking part in some Kindness challenges suggested by the NSPCC. Watch this space for the children bringing home some acts of kindness to complete at home!

Calling Holly 2 parents!

Holly 2 are learning about making puppets as part of their textiles unit this half term. If you are available on Friday 13th October from 1.00 – 2.00 we would love your help in class. This is the day that we will be creating our final glove puppets and we need help with 30 children sewing!

If you are available for the hour, then please let Miss Watts know as soon as possible – the more the merrier!

Thank you!

REMINDER - Parking by the school gates

Please abide by the double yellow lines on the road outside school and do not park on the roundabout!

We are only talking about a small minority of drivers but sadly it only takes one irresponsible driver to park inconsiderately to cause, what could potentially be, a fatal accident.

If you see cars parked illegally, please report –

Thank you for your support.

REMINDER - Flu Immunisations – SIGN UP YOUR CHILD!

Please make sure to sign your child up to receive a flu vaccination which is taking place in school on Wednesday 12th October. A consent form was attached to last week's email as well as guidance for parents.

Exciting opportunity at Poole Lighthouse - Quentin Blake: Illustrating Verse

Fri 29 September 2023 – Sat 6 January 2024

Opening times: Tue – Sat, 10am – 8pm

There is a very exciting exhibition from the Quentin Blake Centre for Illustration displaying in our Main Gallery (next to The Beacon café on the ground floor of Lighthouse).

Quentin Blake has been writing and illustrating poetry throughout his 60-year career. Many of his own books feature rhymes and songs, and he has collaborated with writers including Michael Rosen and Roald Dahl.

As well as artwork for popular nursery rhymes like The Owl and the Pussycat and classic stories including Alice in Wonderland, the exhibition features previously unseen works from Blake's archive, such as surreal illustrations for Sylvia Plath's The Bed Book and mischievous cats for T. S. Elliot's The Song of the Jellicles. Sketchbooks and rough drawings give a rare insight into Blake's writing and book design process, as well as the creation of characters for Roald Dahl's novel Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and his own Mr Magnolia.

The exhibition, Quentin Blake: Illustrating Verse is free entry and is an un-ticketed exhibition - no need to book
